

Marianne Bourgoz Gorgé

Member of the Executive Board

Head of Integrated Risk Expertise division

Marianne Bourgoz Gorgé (1973) holds a degree in mathematics from EPFL. She began her career in 1999 in the Risk Management division at Credit Suisse First Boston in Zurich. In 2002 she moved to UBS in Zurich, where, following two years at UBS Investment Bank in the Group Treasury division, she spent several years in charge of risk control as Executive Director and Team Head. Most recently, she was Group Chief Risk Officer at Banque Cantonale de Genève for eight years (until 2021).

Marianne Bourgoz Gorgé has been a member of FINMA's Executive Board since 1 September 2022; until 31 March 2025 as Head of the Asset Management division, and since 1 April 2025 as Head of the Integrated Risk Expertise division.